Damage assessment in pine nuts from stone pine caused by Leptoglossus Occidentalis and pathogenic agents
Sven Mutke, INIA-CIFOR, Forest Research Centre, Spain
Consumer perception on wild forest products in South Korea
Kyung-taek Min, Korea Rural Economic Institute, Republic of Korea
Current status of forest farming in South Korea
Seung-yeon Byun, Korea Rural Economic Institute, Republic of Korea
A study on shiitake market in South Korea
Choi Junyeong, Korea Rural Economic Institute, Republic of Korea
Non-Wood Forest Products in European policies and regulations
Giulia Corradini, FAO
Wild, non-wood, non-timber forest products – optimization of definition for sustainable use and development
Anastasiia Kraskovska, FAO
Policy frameworks to enhancing the role of non-wood forest products (NWFPs) for achieving SDGs
Jorge Benitez, FAO
Developing empirical models for predicting production of bay leaves (Laurus nobilis)
Burak Sari, Karadeniz Technical University, Trabzon, Turkey

This project has received funding from the European Union's Seventh Programme for research, technological development and demonstration under grant agreement No 311919

11.15- 12.45 Parallel sessions 1a and 1b

Session 1a: Planning and supported decision-making

Chair: Margarida Tome (ISA)

1. Analysis of the co-production of NWFPs and ecosystem services in European countries
   Harald Vacik, University of Natural Resources and Life Sciences, Institute of Silviculture, Austria
2. Predicting the berry yields for North Karelia region, Finland
   Mikko Kurttila, Natural Resources Institute Finland
3. Opportunities and challenges in developing NWFP integrated decision support system in multiple use forest management planning
   Presented by Burak Sari on behalf of Emin Zeki Baskent, Karadeniz Technical University, Faculty of Forestry, Turkey
4. Managing for NWFPs – an assessment on the forest holding level
   Patrick Huber, European Forest Institute Central-East European Regional Office and University of Natural Resources and Life Sciences, Institute of Silviculture, Austria

Session 1b: Institutions and innovation support

Chair: Gerhard Weiss (BOKU)

1. The evolution of institutions for non-wood forest products: An empirical study of harvesting practices across Europe
   Irina Prokofieva, Forest Sciences Center of Catalonia, Barcelona, Spain
2. Wild forest products supply chain and legislation: effects and proposals
   Davide M. Pettenella, University of Padova. TESAF department, Italy
3. Travel cost approaches to assess mushroom picking value and policy interventions effects in Catalonia (Spain)
   Valentino Marini Govigli, European Forest Institute - Mediterranean Regional Office (EFIMED), Barcelona, Spain

12:45-13:45 Lunch

This project has received funding from the European Union's Seventh Programme for research, technological development and demonstration under grant agreement No 311919

13.45-15:15 Parallel sessions 2a and 2b

Session 2a: Domestication and WFP production

Chair: Freerk Wiersum

1. Tools to support cork oak stands multifunctional management: long term optimisation and short term refining
   Margarida Tomé, Centro de Estudos Florestais, Universidade de Lisboa, Portugal
2. Effects of the bacteria Pseudomonas fluorescens on the mycorrhization between Cistus ladanifer and Boletus edulis
   Olaya Mediavilla, Sustainable Forest Management Research Institute and IDForest-Biotecnología Forestal Aplicada, Palencia, Spain
3. Effects of local factors in Thymus sibthorpii's essential oils in mountainous area of northern Greece
   Eleni Abraham, School of Agriculture, Forestry and Natural Environment, Aristotle University of Thessaloniki, Greece)

Session 2b: Working with supply chains & networks

Chair: Davide Pettenella (UNIPD)

1. Wild forest products international trade: which opportunities for the European market?
   Enrico Vidale, University of Padova, TESAF department, Italy
2. Network typologies for promoting wild forest products economies: a comparative analysis of eight case studies
   Riccardo Da Re, University of Padova, TESAF department, Italy
3. Creation of an innovative Kenyan-European Macadamia nuts supply chain
   Matti Spiecker, Macadamiafans Kenya Ltd
4. From paradox to paradigm: The non-conventional innovation in natural resin
   Sven Mutke, INIA - Instituto Nacional de Investigación y Tecnología Agraria y Alimentaria, Madrid, Spain
5. Non-wood forest products-based enterprises characteristics and types in Serbia
   Jelena Nedeljković, University of Belgrade, Faculty of Forestry, Serbia

15:15-15:45 Coffee break

This project has received funding from the European Union's Seventh Programme for research, technological development and demonstration under grant agreement No 311919

15.45-17:15 Parallel sessions 3a: Planning and supported decision-making

Chair: Mikko Kurttila (LUKE)

1. Developing empirical models for predicting production of lime tree flowers (Tilia sp.)
   Presented by Burak Sari on behalf of Emin Zeki Baskent, Karadeniz Technical University, Faculty of Forestry, Turkey
2. Yield models for wild mushrooms in Pinus sylvestris and Pinus pinaster stands of northern Spain
   Mariola Sánchez-González, INIA-CIFOR, Madrid, Spain
3. Meat me on the corner: 'Game' theory redressed in cyber clothing
   Johan Barstad, The Norwegian University College of Agriculture and Rural Development, Norway

Session 3b: Social capital - collective action and collaboration

Chair: Efa Doringer

1. Research in action – the essential role of stakeholders in the development of NWFP opportunities
   Jennifer LG Wong, Wild Resources Ltd., Bangor, UK

Friday October 14, 2016

9.00- 10.40 Parallel sessions 4a and 4b

Session 4a: Silviculture

Chair: Harald Vacik (BOKU)

1. Optimizing the management of cork oak stands in Spain
   Presented by Maria de la O Sanchez Gonzales on behalf of María Pasalodos, INIA-CIFOR, Spain
2. Effect of thinning on mushroom productivity and diversity
   Sergio de Miguel, Universitat de Lleida-Agrotecnio Center, Spain
3. Linkages between mushroom production, forest growth and climate in Mediterranean Pinus pinaster stands
   Presented by Juan Antonio Bonet on behalf of Juan Pemán, Departament de Producció Vegetal i Ciència Forestal, Universitat de Lleida-Agrotecnio Center, Spain
4. Cone production in Pinus pinea forests facing climate change: proposals for adaptive management
   Rafael Calama, INIA-CIFOR, Spain
5. Silviculture guidelines for Pinus pinea management for cone production in Portugal
   João Freire, Centro de Estudos Florestais, Instituto Superior de Agronomia, Universidade de Lisboa, Portugal

Session 4b: Institutions and innovation support II

Chair: Irina Prokofieva (CTFC)

1. Non-timber innovations an innovation system analysis for the side-activities of forestry
   Gerhard Weiss, University of Natural Resources and Life Sciences, Vienna, Austria
2. Who owns wild forest products in Europe?
   Presented by Cosmin Cosofret on behalf of Laura Bouriaud, Stefan cel Mare University of Suceava, Romania
3. Non Timber Forest Products Linguistic Diversity. The case of mushrooms
   Kalliopi Stara, University of Ioannina, Greece
4. The practice of entrepreneurship in the non-wood forest products sector: Support for innovation on private forest land
   Alice Ludvig, University of Natural Resources and Life Sciences, Vienna, Austria
5. Innovating in the transition forestry: cases of non-timber forest products innovations in forestry sector in the South-East Europe
   Jelena Nedeljković, University of Belgrade, Faculty of Forestry, Serbia

10:40—11:10 Coffee break

This project has received funding from the European Union's Seventh Programme for research, technological development and demonstration under grant agreement No 311919

11.10- 12:45 Parallel sessions 5a

Session 5a: Perceptions and Knowledge

Chair: Jenny Wong (WRL)

1. Perception of harms and property rights shapes private forest owners views on wild mushroom picking policies
   Elena Górriz-Mifsud, Forest Science Center of Catalonia (CTFC), Barcelona, Spain
2. Collection and consumption of wild forest products in Europe
   Marko Lovric, European Forest Institute
3. The forest owners' view on berry and mushroom picking on private land
   Veera Tahvanainen, Natural Resources Institute Finland
4. Non timber forest products: An ethnomycological study on mushroom knowledge in the Waldviertel, Austria
   Irmgard Krisai-Greilhuber, Dept. of Botany and Biodiversity Research, University of Vienna, Austria
5. Sabores de bosques sostenibiles
   Ana Belén Noriega, PEFC ESPAÑA, Madrid, Spain

12:45-14:00 Lunch

14:00-15:00 Moderated Panel discussion

15:00-15:30 Concluding remarks
Conclusions by Bernhard Wolfslehner, European Forest Institute

Closing words by David Mascort Subiranas, Secretary General of Agriculture, Livestock, Fisheries and Food, Government of Catalonia

15:30-16:30 Coffee and farewell
